great game. Not huge, but well put together. worth a couple bucks, but free none the less. there is a short level to be played outside of the wizard room, so don't think it is just that. (even though that room is fun too) definitely worth your 20 or 30 min.. A great little puzzle platformer with a great sense of humour. Level editor will make this game have a tonne of replay value and extra content. Looking forward to the full release.. A family friendly Huniepop!

TL;DR: Game good, Play if want chill time fun

This game is a fun little game to play in your spare time. Do you like solving puzzles and want a wholesome game/story out of it? Do you like granting wishes being the master of wishes?? If you answered yes, maybe or are confused; then my friend THIS GAME IS FOR YOU!

Some concerns:

- 1) Regarding the "Weird Spawn" reviews that I've read, the game seems to know when you make a false move and it helps by spawning in the token(s) at the precise location that might help you to win if you strategize correctly and will continue to do so whenever a false move is made.
- 2) The weird "L-shaped" tokens at an ending of a stage which make victory be so close yet so far. During my play of the game I too encountered this problem to eventually find out that it's not actually a problem. The game makes you use your mind throughout the stage. During the final few pieces (tokens) of the stage, be cautious on how you position said tokens. It is part of the strategy hence being part of the gameplay experience #RageIncluded.
. I do not recommend this DLC.

The ship is VERY squishy and you die within a good 3 seconds in AI. All it takes is a beam to lock onto you and that's it, you are DONE FOR unless you cloak and once you come out it then you're completely exposed.. Portal in 2D? More like Portal on steroids!

The fact that this kind of games are constantly compared to Portal may be unfair, but it's rather unavoidable, given the presence of a precese of what's basicly 2D version of the portal gun.

As one of four different kinds of portal guns. The most mind bending of these has to be the one that created portals in time, although the gravity changing one comes as a close second.

All in all, the game is a solid puzzle platformer with a heavy emphasis on puzzles, later of which could take me up to an hour just to solve one. The pixel graphics may be a bit too pixely for some, but overall the presentation holds up, as does the user interface. Mostly. Juggling the extra tools can be a bit of an hassle sometimes and you'll hope there would be an easier way to set the portals up as you reach the point were you're just tweaking your solutions.. Fun game, short and sweet and satisfying when you finish it! Good fuse of logic and weirdness.

Juego divertido sin m\u00e1s, recomendado para partidas r\u00e1pidas. Good puzzle game - but you cant choose levels.. 30 minutes of game play.

- Set up
- Random zombie's spawns
- Go to gastation
 - a. leave a person get clothing
